BETWEEN
THE WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
AND
THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF PERU
CONCERNING WAGE AND HOUR LAWS AND REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO
PERUVIAN WORKERS IN THE UNITED STATES

The Wage and Hour Division (WHD) of the Department of Labor of the United States of America and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Peru, through its Embassy and consulates in the United States, hereinafter “the Participants”;

CONSIDERING their desire to protect the well-being of Peruvian workers in the United States;

CONSIDERING their desire to establish programs of cooperation to educate and inform Peruvian workers and employers in the United States as to their respective workplace rights and responsibilities, to provide them with information about WHD resources to strengthen implementation of the laws enforced by the agency;

CONSIDERING the importance of promoting a better understanding of wage and hour laws and regulations by Peruvian workers in the United States through outreach, education, training, and replication of best practices, and to help address wage and hour issues impacting Peruvian workers in the United States; and

CONSIDERING the intention of the Participants, through the U.S.–Peru Joint Declaration between the Department of Labor of the United States of America and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Peru, signed at Washington, DC on June 11, 2012 to work together to inform Peruvian workers in the United States about their labor rights,

Intend to collaborate as follows:

SECTION 1

Objective

To promote the workplace rights and well-being of Peruvian workers in the United States through joint efforts between the Participants and with other relevant governmental agencies and private organizations in the United States, as appropriate and as mutually consented to by the Participants.

SECTION 2

Areas of Collaboration

In furtherance of this objective, the Participants intend to pursue the following initiatives concerning wage and hour related workplace issues affecting Peruvian workers in the United States, to the extent funds are available:

1. Joint development, translation, and dissemination of informational materials, utilizing print and electronic media, addressing workplace laws and regulations affecting Peruvian workers in the United States.
2. Distribution and publicity of Spanish language brochures (where applicable), pamphlets and other informational materials to Peruvian workers regarding applicable labor protections in the United States, both prior to and after their arrival in the United States.

3. Joint strategic expansion of collaborative partnerships to other areas in the United States, with each initiative tailored to the special characteristics of the target communities.
4. Development with the Embassy of Peru and its consulates in the United States of other appropriate models for collaboration for implementation in regions in the United States where there are Peruvian worker populations.
5. Outreach to entities such as faith- and community-based organizations that routinely interact with Peruvian workers to:
  - a. facilitate meetings with Peruvian workers to provide information about worker protections in the United States and where to seek assistance; and
  - b. promote the distribution of materials providing information about worker protections in the United States and where to seek assistance.
6. Outreach to Peruvian employers and Peruvian business associations to facilitate training by the WHD on applicable wage and hour laws.
7. Outreach to national media outlets in the United States, social media, and local community media to facilitate public service programs to provide information about worker protection laws in the United States.
8. Assistance by the Embassy of Peru and its consulates in locating Peruvian workers following their return to Peru to:
  - a. provide information about a Peruvian worker's current address to facilitate the payment of back wages; and
  - b. provide information for developing an enforcement action against an employer of a Peruvian worker or workers in the United States.

SECTION 3

Process of Consultation

The Participants intend to collaborate through joint efforts at the national level between the WHD and the Embassy of Peru in Washington, D.C., and at the regional level between the WHD regional and area offices and Peruvian consulates in the United States. The Participants intend to identify points of contact for formal communication at the national and regional levels, who would be responsible for developing joint efforts within the areas of cooperation as may be decided. Representatives of the Participants intend to meet on a periodic basis to assure that these functions are carried out. The Participants have exchanged lists of national and regional representatives who would serve as contact points to support these efforts.

Expenses and Costs

Each Participant intends to finance its participation in any areas of cooperation undertaken pursuant to this Letter of Arrangement and subject to the availability of funds in the Participant's respective budget.

SECTION 5
Final Provisions

This Letter of Arrangement does not create any international obligations or responsibility for the States to which the Participants belong. This Arrangement becomes operative on the date of signing and is intended to cease after a period of three years. This Arrangement may be modified by written consent of the Participants. This Arrangement may be continued by written consent of the Participants and may be discontinued by either Participant at any time. Either Participant should endeavor to provide three months written notification of its intent to discontinue this Arrangement to the other Participant.

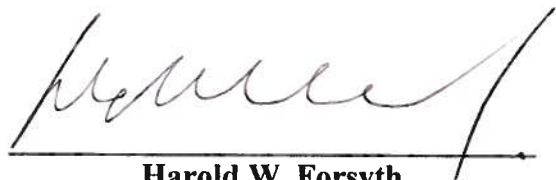

Signed at Washington, D.C., in duplicate, in English and Spanish, on the eleventh day of June, two thousand twelve.
